

Training in leading

quiet days and retreats

The Retreat Association is supporting a number of regional training events for those interested in leading quiet days and retreats. If you feel called towards this ministry or would like to find out more, please contact the individual retreat house below for details. Each retreat house is offering its own programme of training. Discounts are offered to members of the Retreat Association member groups at the majority of these events.

Regional Quiet Days 2010

The Retreat Association is promoting a series of ecumenical Regional Quiet Days across the UK. This is not only an ideal opportunity to find space and time for reflection but also to meet locally with other members of the Retreat Association member groups and those interested in the value of retreat. Please see below for details of each event.
