Resolution	23/1. The Conference receives the Report.

Summary of content

Subject and aims	To report on the work of the Group during the past year.
-------------------------	--

Introduction

1. The Joint Covenant Advocacy and Monitoring Group (JCAMG) has met twice this year and has continued its work of encouraging and enabling both churches to live and grow in their Covenant relationship. Whilst significant time has been given to monitoring the ongoing processes in relation to Mission and Ministry in Covenant the group also wishes to affirm and advocate the important opportunities for mission already afforded by the Covenant, and to affirm the work of the Methodist-Anglican Panel for Unity in Mission (MAPUM) in identifying and sharing these.

Living in Covenant

2. It continues to be important to enable the sharing of experiences of working together, both when this is positive and encouraging and when it is more challenging. Stories have been gathered and posted on the Covenant website and this continues to be one way in which to share information and learn from one another.
3. Having met with the Digital Content Officer of the Methodist Church, the Group has proposed the production of a variety of resources to support conversations around the Covenant. These might include:
 - i) five or six short videos of 'good news' stories that can be used through social media channels.
 - ii) A 10-15-minute video presentation of the Covenant relationship for use in meetings such as Deanery Synods and Circuit Meetings. The short 'story' videos could be included in this.
 - iii) An update to the existing 'Frequently Asked Questions' document.

It is hoped and expected that funding can be secured to support this advocacy work.

4. The Bishop of Liverpool, Co-Chair of JCMAG, met with the Methodist Anglican Panel on Unity in Mission (MAPUM) in March 2018 and presented the work of JCAMG. Whilst recognising that there is support in both Churches for the Covenant, both MAPUM and JCAMG wish to encourage a deeper passion for the Covenant relationship.
5. The 13 Covenant Champions met with the National and Connexional Ecumenical Officers and Mr David Walton in March 2019. We are grateful for their commitment and acknowledge the important role they have in encouraging the development of relationships within the Covenant.
6. The Gifts We Receive is a consultation over two days in June and October 2019. Participants will use the methodology of Receptive Ecumenism, to identify and focus on gifts received from the other church, consider how the gifts received can help each church in its life and mission to flourish. Thought will then be given to ways of sharing this with others.

Mission and Ministry in Covenant

7. The joint work of the Faith and Order Committee of the Methodist Church and the Faith and Order Commission of the Church of England has been much appreciated by the JCAMG. It is anticipated that the Mission and Ministry in Covenant proposals will come to the General Synod in July 2019 and then to the Methodist Conference for debate and decision.
8. The group has identified the need for accessible resources to support discussion of Mission and Ministry in Covenant in local contexts and will be doing further work on this should the proposals be commended for further decision by the General Synod and the Methodist Conference.
