57. Committee Appointments

Conference Business Committee. He has been a representative at Conference many times, and as Vice-President in 2005 chaired the Conference and shared in agenda-drafting and daily preparatory meetings.

He is recognised as a good Chair of a meeting. He prepares thoroughly and expedites business efficiently and effectively within the time available. He possesses a developed instinct for discerning the mood of meetings, making helpful and insightful contributions in apt ways, with firmness or a lighter touch, as appropriate. He has led working parties with vigour, grace and competence, worked flexibly in tight time constraints, and produced clarity in relation to complex issues. He is known as a careful listener, a clear thinker and a capable evaluator. As a contributor to Conference debates he engenders respect and confidence. He is recognised as a mature Christian disciple and leader in the Church.

The Council is confident in John's ability to discern carefully the needs and work of the Conference, and warmly nominates him to the Conference for appointment as Chair of its Business Committee.
