

Call to worship:

In the breaking of bread we are known and we know in the eating of bread we are fed for our journey In the sharing of bread we become one family in giving bread to others we act as God's people So, as bread and Word are broken, may we receive from God's hands and each others' hands and may we give to each other, God and the world that all may be fed, and find life in abundance.

Hymn

Psalm

What are we carrying?

As the crowds that followed Jesus brought their hopes and dream, joys and sorrows,
their struggles and preoccupations.
So we come to worship with our minds and memories full of the past week and beyond, and our minds and imaginations already looking to tomorrow and further planning, worrying and hoping.
Let us bring all we are, all we have been and all we will be as we offer our prayers to God: our wonder and praise; our recognition of past wrongs; and all that we bring with us

Prayer of adoration

God of all times and all places and of this time and this place we praise you for the glimpses of your glory we have seen this week for your eternal presence in creation and beyond it, for the times when we've been aware of your presence and for those when your love has surrounded us even though we did not recognise it.
for all that you are and for all that you have made we praise you

God of all times and all places made human in Jesus, in one time and place we praise you for the glimpses of your glory in in Jesus for his life lived among us for his death, resurrection and ascension leading us to abundant life for all that you are and for all that you have done and are doing we praise you

God of all times and all places but beyond time and space we praise you for the glimpses of your glory we are given through your Holy Spirit.
As we worship, may that Spirit inspire and guide us that we may worship in spirit and in truth for all that you are for all you will do we praise you
Amen

Prayer of confession (this or some other prayer of confession)

In silence we call to mind our sins

Silence

I confess to God and to you that I have sinned in thought, word and deed; may God have mercy on me.

May God grant you pardon, forgiveness of all your sins,
time to amend your life,
and the grace and comfort of his Holy Spirit. Amen.

We confess to you that we have sinned in thought and word and deed; may God have mercy on us.
May God grant you pardon,
forgiveness of all your sins,
time to amend your life,
and the grace and comfort of his Holy Spirit. Amen.

Sermon

Where Is Bread? ABBOT'S LEIGH 8.7.8.7 D ("God Is Here!")

"Where is bread?" the great crowd murmured — Thousands strong, yet all in need.

"Where is bread?" your people wondered,

Faced with such a crowd to feed.

Who, Lord Jesus, could have guessed it?

One small boy brought food to share.

Taking what he gave, you blessed it;

All were fed, with much to spare.

Where is bread? We know their yearning; Every day, we wish for more.
God, in time, we're slowly learning:
All we own can make us poor.
Our possessions can possess us, Leaving hunger deep inside.
Christ our Bread, come now and bless us;
At your feast, we're satisfied.

"Where is bread?" the call is rising; Millions cry who must be fed.
God, your answer seems surprising:
"You, my Church, you give them bread."
Bread to fill each hungry spirit, Bread for hungry stomachs, too!
Give us bread and help us share it.
Richly blest, may we serve you.

Prayers

Prayer of Thanksgiving

We say together

God of abundant meadows and full baskets we thank you for your gifts to us, for your abundant life which fills our lives, our world and our universe.
May our eyes be opened so that we can see your abundance in our lives and in the life of the world.

May our hands be opened so we may receive your plenty from others and share your generosity with others In the name of God, Eternal, Son and Spirit we pray
Amen

Prayer of Intercession

God of abundant meadows and full baskets who heard the cry of your enslaved people and led them to freedom who heard the cry of your hungry people and fed them hear our prayers

and let our cries come to you.

We pray for the needs of this world for those enslaved by fear, terror, war, poverty, hunger, oppression for those crying out for freedom, justice, food for their children and themselves, peace and life in all its fullness

Silence

and let our cries come to you.

We pray for the church throughout the world, for our circuit, & for this church that we may live in God's life for all who are seeking life in its fullness for all crying out to hear, feel and know God's love

Silence

and let our cries come to you.

We pray for those who are in need those who are ill and those who care for them and worry about them those who face difficult decisions and those who cannot see a way forward those who are grieving and those who sit with them

Silence

and let our cries come to you.

We bring these and all our prayers in the name of Jesus who taught us when we pray to say Blessing

As we leave we receive bread, a sign of God's abundance and plenty to feed us as we live as God's people in the coming week.
Go into the world
to feed those who are hungry, weep with those who grieve and bring healing and hope.

Go into the world to see God's abundant life wherever you go and in whoever you meet and to share God's abundant life wherever you go and with whoever you meet

And may the blessing of God Father, Son and Holy Spirit be with you now and always Amen
