

Volunteers' prayer calendar

3GENERATE
CHILDREN & YOUTH ASSEMBLY

to equip, to enable, to encourage

March – April

We are united in prayer...

- for careful and prayerful discernment for all those exploring volunteering opportunities
- for groups as they help to plan this year's 3Generate event
- for churches as they discuss and understand the 2019 Manifesto
- for those planning the 2019 3Generate event programme

May

We are united in prayer...

- for all communities of faith, churches, districts and circuits, as they encourage their children and young people to attend
- for the Youth President and for all 3Generate Youth Representatives as they begin to creatively explore this year's theme, and as they prepare for 3Generate

June

We are united in prayer...

- for the organisational and administrative teams working throughout the year to enable a successful, listening event
- for all those discerning a vocation for the role of Youth President, and for all those exploring their calling to become a 3Generate Youth Representative
- for strength to step out in faith

July

We are united in prayer...

- for all those involved in volunteering and facilitating the event
- for all volunteers, old and new, however big or small their contribution

August

We are united in prayer...

- for all those working centrally to prepare for 3Generate, for their time and their talents, their commitment and their vision

September

We are united in prayer...

- for the area local to the event as they prepare to welcome and host the future voices of the Methodist Church

October

We are united in prayer...

- for the children and young people who will attend, and also for all those who will not
- may they be assured of God's presence with them and be filled with courage to speak up and to be heard

November

We are united in prayer...

- for courage, and encouragement, to speak up and be heard, to challenge and to command respect, to explore and to find inspiration, to question and to answer, to worship and to pray
- for 3Generate; for all those involved, for all those who have organised, those who have created exciting and engaging ways into faith and scripture, those who have volunteered and shared their time, talents, and gifts with those around them, and for all children and young people who attend
- for children and young people to be valued and listened to

December

We are united in prayer...

- of thanks for all that the event brought and achieved, for all the hope, for all the questions, for all the prayer, for all the fun, for all the vision, for all the friendship, and for for the immense faith
- for the formation of the children and young people's vision in their Manifesto

January

We are united in prayer...

- for our children and young people as they begin to explore their hopes and designs for next year's 3Generate event
- for all Shaper Groups across the Connexion, that they may listen, grow and discern the theme, calling and vision for next year's event
- for all communities of faith as they delve into 3Generate Local Packs, and as they explore the children and young people's Manifesto and their vision for the Church
