Additional guidance for completing this Trustee Eligibility Declaration

All local churches and any circuits and districts which operate projects which work with children or vulnerable persons must check the first box.

Most Local Churches and Circuits will not have a corporate trustee. If there is no corporate trustee, leave the second box un-checked.

Individuals who are automatically disqualified must obtain a waiver of their disqualification from the Charity Commission in order to continue as a trustee. The Charity Commission will make a decision based on whether waiving the disqualification is in the best interests of the charity, amongst other factors. There is guidance on how waiver decisions are made.

You are signing to confirm that you have provided up to date and accurate information and that you are aware of all of your responsibilities as a trustee and will comply with them. Read this document thoroughly before signing.

Trustees must read the following Charity Commission guidance documents before signing:

- Safeguarding Children and Young People and such of the associated guidance as is relevant to your charity.
- Examples of Personal Benefit
- CC3 – The Essential Trustee

Signing this declaration without having read these documents will result in the submission of a false declaration. The submission of a false declaration may lead to civil legal proceedings against any or all of the charity trustees and may lead to the disqualification of any or all of the charity trustees.
